Dear Parent/Carer

In appreciation of the work of both Senior Music and Drama students and both subjects’ focus on Arts appreciation we have organised an amazing opportunity for students. We have secured tickets to the QPAC stage production of The Sound of Music. This is an amazing opportunity for students to view live theatre in Brisbane. Details for this excursion are detailed below:

Performance: The Sound of Music
Date: Tuesday 15th March
Arrival Time: 6.00pm SHARP (for a 6.30pm show)
Place: Queensland Performance Arts Complex, South Bank
Dress: Smart Casual

Students will need to meet their teacher, at the QPAC box office (Lyric Theatre entrance) no later than 6.00pm so the group can be seated in time for a 6.30pm show. Running time for the show is approximately 2 hours and 30 minutes. Students are to arrange own transport to and from the venue. Parents will be able to pick up their students from 9.00pm from the venue. Students will be allowed to wear free dress, however it is expected that they will be dressed in suitable attire for the theatre. (Flat bottom shoes/sandals; No midriff, singlet or "strappy" tops; No revealing necklines; No short shorts or short skirts- i.e. above thigh length)

This is not a compulsory excursion for either subject, so if your student does not wish to attend please advise us as soon as possible so the tickets can be reallocated to other students. If you have any queries or need to arrange transport, please contact the accompanying teachers: Zachary Von Hoff or Cassandra Croucher.

Please fill in the slip below and return to Mr Von Hoff by Thursday 10th March.

Yours Sincerely

Cassandra Croucher
